BURPEE

Hellebore

Also called the Lenten Rose, this hardy perennial kicks off the gardening season, blooming in winter and early spring.

Lavender

The iconic lavender is treasured for its delicate fragrance. Thrives in beds, borders and containers.

Foxglove

A dramatic perennial with distinct towering spikes, dense with speckled trumpet flowers. Blooms from late spring through the end of summer.

Vinca

These annual flowers thrive in full sun and intense heat, and look uncannily like impatiens.

Dusty Miller

Another annual flower that serves as excellent foliage for borders, edging and pots.
